

Jackson Township Clerk Wayne Handley and Trustees George Kordick, Gene Held and Everett Conley were present. The meeting was for open discussion concerning Fire Protection and Rescue Operations for the surrounding community.

Committeeman Armstrong suggested that he felt a study might be advisable to find out the cash flow, what might be needed for capital improvements and what incoming revenue might be available.

Committeeman Randall Bond thanked the men from Jackson Township and expressed his appreciation for their interest.

Motion to adjourn made by Leo Jacobson and seconded by Leo Armstrong.
