The City Council met in Special Session at the City Hall with Mayor Ralph D. Means presiding. Council Members present were: Harold Veatch, Robert Weiland, Denny Sickles and Kenneth Perry. Absent: Gene Jacobsen.

Purpose of the meeting was the discussion on Placement of a Mobile Home owned by Jay Zimmerline to be placed on a lot owned by Ruby Eddy.

Mrs. Eddy owes a bill of $414.93 for water hook-up on the lot, and the Mayor ask the City Attorney Don Mackaman to attend the meeting to give his legal opinion; as to whether another trailer could be put on the lot before this bill was paid.

A building permit will have to be applied for, and Council approval would have to be given before anyone could move onto the lot.

The Mayor and Council had received many complaints about having the Mobile Home moved onto the lot.

Motion by Kenneth Perry to have City Attorney Don Mackaman start action against Ruby Eddy in small claims court for the amount of $414.93 due on the bill for water hookup. Seconded by Denny Sickles. Carried, but with Harold Veatch voting Nay.

It was thought that perhaps by talking to Mrs. Eddy that some arrangement could be made to get the matter settled.

Motion by Robert Weiland to adjourn. Seconded by Denny Sickles. Carried.
