Departmental reports were heard and correspondence read.

There was discussion on the water problems. Many had been having rusty water. Council Member Kenneth Perry had ask if a filter could be put in the main line. Delmer Miller felt that it would take another filter plant. The PH had been changed so there had been an increase of Caustic soda put in. It was decided to call Kirkham, Michael and see if they had any solution to the problem.

Police Chief Ronald Highland ask permission to purchase the Criminal Law and Motor Vehicle Law update.

Motion by Kenneth Perry to get the Criminal Law and Motor Vehicle Up-Date inserts for the Police Department. Seconded by Denny Sickles Carried.

Mayor Ralph D. Means ask that the City Street crew always clean out the rolled in snow out of the Funeral Home Driveway especially when there is a body there.

Motion by Kenneth Perry for the City to pay the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance for Dan Richards since he is a full time employee. Seconded by Gene Jacobsen. Carried.

Insurance on the Sub Station was discussed. Harvey Wallace had received a quote of $852. per year. The Council thought it wise to check into some other companies for a quote.

Motion by Denny Sickles to buy the City Crew Insulated Coveralls. Seconded by Robert Edwards. Carried.

There was discussion as to whether the Council wanted to go back to the Committee form. No decision was reached and will be taken up at a later date.

Motion by Denny Sickles to adjourn. Seconded by Gene Jacobsen. Carried.
