

Harvey explained that in order to have a full time director there was a need for fundung. Each City in the County would be expected to donate $2.00 per capita to fund the program. This would cost the City of Fontanelle approximately $1600. The Adair County economis development committee has appropriated $6500. and the Tourism group has appropriated $3500. An office would have to be established but it could be that a temporary office could be put into some other office. He reported that Greenfield has agreed to go along with the program if a full time man is hired.

Clint Hight, City Attorney related that a partial release had been received for the Dodson property. When the lot is paid for a copy of the check will be sent to the Attorney for his files.

The County Engineer and supervisors had agreed to pay one-half the cost of re-doing the west part of Summerset Street, butthey did recommend that,he corner be graded out for a better drainage situation.

Don Baudler met ~~with~~ the Council regarding the approach to his garage. The Council felt that a tube would be best. Delmer is to meet with Mr. Baudler on Wednesday morning to decide which is the best way.
