

on new springs would only be a stop-gap. The board instructed Chief Stewart to look into purchasing another vehicle for rescue equipment.

Also reported was plans for HIV traingin and a cost estimate per person.

Delmer Miller showed the board proposals he had received for generators. The Fire Dept. is willing to donate $3100 toward the purchase of a generator for use in supplying electricity to the community center, the city hall and blowing the fire whistle during electricla outages. The board asked if Delmer would check on the pull of the fire whistle to a generator. Motion by Nelson to allow the use of Fire Dept. funds toward a generator, if approved by city council. Seconded by Hepler. Carried.

They also had no objections to transferring the base radio at city hall to one of the city trucks, if a different base were purchased to replace the one now in use.

Motion by Ehrenfried to adjourn. Seconded by Nelson. Carried.
