

Chief Sickles reported that he and three other firemen had attended the funeral of Jimmy Griffith (the volunteer killed in Winterset).

At the regular fire meeting, the department voted to buy a new defibrillator from Zoll and to use the money left to them by James Jensen. The cost of the defibrillator will be app. $8800.

The old fire truck will be getting fixed when the parts arrive. The grass fires have slackened.

Dry hydrants were discussed. It may be necessary to buy posts and a chain to hold the fire hoses.

The department will need a 28E agreement with other departments to allow pumping from each others dry hydrants.

The fire department will be looking into getting a computer. The state will give them a free program for EMS and fire reports.

Motion by Mensing to adjourn. Seconded by Jaschke. Carried unanimously.
