Departmental Reports

Craig reported he is planning on beginning installation of new poles and streetlights around the square at the end of the month. The alternator went out of one of the trucks today and will need to be repaired. There was an outage last Thursday while Craig was unavailable due to a family funeral in Cedar Falls. Joel Olsen from Greenfield Municipal Utilities came over to assist with repairs.

Homan discussed possible date change for Pancake Day. It is usually held on the 2nd Saturday of December. However, that will be December 8th and Homan feels that is too early in the month. December 15th is open, and Susan was asked to reserve the date for Pancake Day.

Motion to adjourn the meeting by Reed at 7:30 p.m. 2nd by Shafer. Approved.

Attest: Susan Newton, City Clerk

Discussed requests from various individuals expressing an interest in the old street light poles that have been taken down. After some discussion, it was decided Craig will weigh one of the poles and check to see what they are worth as scrap. This will be the price they are sold as. They will be sold as is, with the purchaser being responsible for picking them up. The city will not be involved with setting any of the poles. After the price is set, Scott, Susan and Craig will work up an ad for the paper advertising the poles for sale.

Reviewed the FY 2011/2012 Annual Urban Renewal Report. This is a new report required by the state. Motion by Shafer to approve the report as presented. 2nd by Warrior. Approved.

Craig provided a map and discussed his request to replace the old water main running along the highway from 8th Street west to West 3rd Street. This project will also include replacing the main around the south half of the square. This line was put in during the 1930s, and is in very bad shape. The consensus of the council was for Craig to discuss a rough estimate with Howard R. Green Engineering.

Discussed the Midwest Partnership's 2012 Annual Dinner on Thursday, January 24th at Lake Panorama. It was decided to allow any council members, full-time employees and their spouses to attend the meeting.

Police department report prepared by Pat Henry was reviewed. Pat was not present at this meeting. Discussed the city has received numerous complaints regarding loose dogs, and also dog owners allowing their pets to defecate in other people's yards.

Motion by Reed to approve the clerk's report, list of bills and minutes. 2nd by Warrior. Approved.
